

Department of Veterans Affairs

§ 1.955

is a reasonable prospect of effecting enforced collection from the debtor, having due regard for the exemptions available to the debtor under State and Federal law and judicial remedies available to the government, shall be included:

(i) Such credit data may take the form of:

(A) A commercial credit report;

(B) An agency investigative report showing the debtor's assets, liabilities, income, and expenses;

(C) The individual debtor's own financial statement executed under penalty of perjury reflecting the debtor's assets, liabilities, income, and expenses; or

(D) An audited balance sheet of a corporate debtor.

(ii) Such credit data may be omitted if:

(A) A surety bond is available in an amount sufficient to satisfy the claim in full;

(B) The forced sale value of the security available for application to the VA claim is sufficient to satisfy the claim in full;

(C) VA wishes to liquidate the loan collateral through judicial foreclosure but does not desire a deficiency judgment;

(D) The debtor is in bankruptcy or receivership;

(E) The debtor's liability to VA is fully covered by insurance, in which case VA will furnish such information as it can develop concerning the identity and address of the insurer and the type and amount of insurance coverage;

(F) The nature of the debtor is such that credit data is not normally available or cannot reasonably be obtained; or

(G) Where it is clearly irrelevant to the Government's case.

(b) VA shall also use the Claims Collection Litigation Report (CCLR) when referring claims to the Department of Justice in order to obtain approval of that department with respect to compromise, suspension, or termination.

(Authority: 31 U.S.C. 3711)

§ 1.952 Preservation of evidence.

Care shall be taken to preserve all files, records, and exhibits on claims referred to or to be referred to the Department of Justice for litigation. Under no circumstances should original documents be sent to the Department of Justice or to the U.S. Attorney without their specific prior approval to do so. Copies of relevant documents should be sent whenever necessary.

(Authority: 31 U.S.C. 3711)

§ 1.953 Minimum amount of referrals to the Department of Justice.

VA shall not refer claims of less than $600, exclusive of interest, penalties (if applicable), and administrative costs, for litigation unless:

(a) Referral is important to a significant enforcement policy, or

(b) The debtor not only has the clear ability to pay the claim but the government can effectively enforce payment, having due regard for the exemptions available to the debtor under State and Federal law and the judicial remedies available to the government.

(Authority: 31 U.S.C. 3711)

§ 1.954 Preliminary referrals to GAO.

As required by § 1.950, preliminary referrals to the Government Accounting Office (GAO) will be in accordance with instructions, including monetary limitations, contained in the "General Accounting Office Policy and Procedures Manual for the Guidance of Federal Agencies".
